NUMBER 58.

LEGAL ACTION TAKEN

To Make Colonel Campbell Pay Bribe Into Court.

AN ECHO OF HANNA CONTEST

Some Parties Are Anxious to See Color of Seventeen Hundred Dollars Said to Have Been Intended For Representative Otis.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—Judge Dempsey had before him again the motion to compel Colonel T. C. Campbell to pay into court the money which it was alleged was given to him to pay last January to Legislator Otis by H. H. Boyce, who was supposed to be acting for Senator Hanna when the latter was a candidate. A suit was filed here and the attempt was made to garnish the money alleged to be in the possession of Campbell. He appeared in court and said that the money was in New York, where it was tied up by an order of court in suits filed there against Boyce, and that it could not be brought here without incurring the penalty of the court there. It was also asserted by counsel for Campbell that the money was not the property of Boyce, but of Senator Hanna. This was denied, and it was asserted that they could not show that the money ever belonged to the senator. Judge Dempsey took the matter under advisement.

John C. Otis is the Republican member of the legislature from Cincinnati, who claimed a year ago to have been offered $1,700 for his vote for senator. Campbell is his attorney and it was claimed that H. H. Boyce paid the money to Campbell. There are some who deny the whole story, claiming that the money was never turned over to any one or offered to Otis and suit is brought both to test the claim that was thought to have been made for effect on the senatorial contest and also for the benefit of Boyce's creditors.

Not Pleased With Military Rule. San Juan, Porto Rico, Jan. 30.—While the Porto Ricans do not offer the least resistance to the military administration, they make no secret of the fact that they do not desire its continuance. It is not that they object to the Americanization of the island, but they earnestly wish for a civil government, in some reasonable and practicable form. Under the old Spanish regime they will tell you they enjoyed a higher degree of freedom than now, and though they seize with sincere enthusiasm every opportunity for putting themselves in touch with the institutions and demands of the new government, they feel a pride in working out their own political salvation as a free people, and not as a subjugated one.

Don't Take to Gomez's Plan. Havana, Jan. 30.—The plan of General Gomez to unite the Spaniards in Cuba with the Cubans proper in a party whose platform should be the independence of the island, does not altogether thrive in the Spanish mind. Some Spaniards say, "Yes, give us the Gomez program of amity." Others are silent. As for the annexationists they are very outspoken in Havana, but more reserved in the interior of the island where they are outnumbered and far from the protection of the American troops.

Decline to Lend Their Money. Havana, Jan. 30.—The marquis of Pinar del Rio has caused some apprehension among the Spaniards by the assertion that, during his recent visit to the United States he became convinced that the American government did not intend to hold Cuba permanently. Spanish bankers and merchants decline to lend money or to give liberal credits because they fear that the American occupation will be brief and that the reconstruction of the insular system of government will be retarded in consequence.

Army Repair Corral. Savannah, Jan. 30.—Lieutenant Colonel J. Bellinger, department quartermaster, has received instructions to prepare an army repair corral here. All the surplus animals and vehicles from the various camps in the south are to be sent to Savannah as rapidly as possible. Great stockades and stables will be built, workshops erected and arrangements made for putting the army equipment sent here in first-class order before it is formally distributed to Cuba and Porto Rico.

New Orleans, Jan. 30.—The body found near Fort St. Philip was identified as that of Captain Sturtevant, the pilot of the launch Paul Jones. From the position and clothing of the body, it is almost certain that he was off duty and asleep at the time death came and that the boat was wrecked by an explosion during the night.

OPPOSED TO ALLIANCE.

Mr. Croker Thinks America Can Expand With England's Aid.

New York, Jan. 30.—Richard Croker, discussing the subject of expansion, said: "I have faith in America's capacity to do anything that any other nation can do—and to do things that no other nation could do."

"What would you think of an alliance with England, or some other power, to carry out the American policy?" "I am opposed to such alliances, and so far as I know the sentiment of every man in the political organization to which I belong is opposed to them. And I will say this, that my mind is perfectly open to consider events and conditions, as they may develop, and if at any time it appeared that expansion meant alliances with England or any other European power I am opposed to expansion."

My opinions in favor of expansion are based upon the assumption that no power could interfere with us, and no combination could be made against us necessitating an alliance with any European power."

English Ship Building.

London, Jan. 30.—The record number of British warships now building amount to 119 vessels, ranging from the heaviest battleships to the tiny torpedo boat destroyers, the figures being 14 firstclass ironclads, 36 cruisers, 14 sloops and gunboats and 53 torpedo boat destroyers. Chatham dockyard is credited with the unparalleled achievement of launching three of the heaviest battleships from the same slip within 10 months. The armored ships building at a cost of over £26,000,000 number 28, with a tonnage of over 350,000 tons, the number exceeding by two the entire Russian fleet of battleships, and triple the number of armored vessels in the American navy.

War Issues to Be Raised.

Madrid, Jan. 30.—The reopening of the cortes is fixed for Feb. 20. The government will introduce a bill providing for the payment of indemnity to Spaniards who have suffered through the cession of the Philippine islands to the United States. The members of the opposition purpose to raise a debate on the wars in Cuba and the Philippine islands. It is believed the session will be short. The premier, Senor Sagasta, will then submit to the queen regent a question of confidence in the government.

Will Leave Columbus Barracks.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—General M. V. Sheridan, commander of the department of the lakes, issued orders for the departure of an expedition to the Philippines. The force will include the Third infantry, now at Fort Snelling, Minn., and four companies of the Seventh infantry, stationed at Columbus barracks, O. The troops will leave their home stations Jan. 30, and sail from New York Feb. 1 for Manilla.

Cut Prices In Glassware.

Pittsburg, Jan. 30.—The bottom is being knocked out of the prices on pressed glassware and prices on all staple goods are being cut, in some instances as much as 15 and 25 per cent. Many firms have signified their intention of shutting down their works rather than try to meet the ruinous competition. The price cutting is attributed to the failure to form a combine a few weeks ago.

Elevator Company Assails.

St. Louis, Jan. 30.—Henry Sebastian, president of the St. Louis Bridge and Iron company, has been appointed receiver of the Farmers' Elevator company of this city, which has assigned the elevator, which is one of the largest and best in the city, has a capacity of 1,500,000 bushels. No figures are given to show the extent of the liabilities and assets.

Will Collect No More Taxes.

Havana, Jan. 30.—The Spanish bank will not collect any more taxes in Cuba. Major General Brooke, governor general of the island, received information from Washington that the bank's collection was left to his discretion. The bank is still under the orders of Jan. 7, authorized to collect taxes, but orders rescinding the contract will be issued.

Maryland Court Approved.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—In the suit of the consolidated causes of the Mercantile Trust company against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, Judge Taft granted a decree of foreclosure of the consolidated mortgages of 1872 and 1874. This approved recent action of the United States circuit court of Maryland.

Ireland Visits the Vatican.

Rome, Jan. 30.—Archbishop Ireland went to the vatican, where he had a conference with Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state. Many cardinals and other high ecclesiastics visited the archbishop at the Hotel Bristol, where he is staying.

RUN DOWN IN A TUNNEL

Horrible Fate of Twenty-six Track Repairers.

STRUCK BY A LOCOMOTIVE.

Smoke Blinded the Men So That They Were Unable to Tell on Which Track the Engine Was Approaching.

Altoona, Pa., Jan. 30.—A gang of 26 track repairmen were working on the railroad at the western opening of the Gallitzin tunnel at 3 p. m., when they heard the approach of a locomotive.

It was running west through the tunnel. The workmen all stepped from the north track, on which westbound trains move, to the south track.

The smoke in the tunnel prevented them from seeing the approaching locomotive which, in order to avoid obstructions on the north track, was running on the south track. One man was instantly killed, one died in the Altoona hospital and 16 were more or less seriously injured. None escaped without injury.

The dead are: David Wilt, 40, instantly killed; Thomas W. Sanker, 25, died in hospital. Gallitzin is the home of all the men.

A Land Decision.

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—Judge Lochren of the United States court filed a decision involving the right of the Northern Pacific railroad to about 1,000,000 acres of land in Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin, the company receiving title to that much land. The contest was over the eastern terminus of the railway. The United States holding that it was at Duluth, while the company insisted that it was at Ashland. The government applied to have the land, which had been patented to the road, restored to the public domain, canceling the patent issued four years ago.

Island Disappearing.

San Francisco, Jan. 30.—The news has been brought here from Australia that the British man of war Penguin has just returned to Sydney, N. S. W., after taking soundings between the island of Longi and Auckland, N. Z. The officers found that Falcon island, which suddenly came up out of the ocean in 1885, is gradually receding. When relocated by the Penguin's officers, they discovered that the island is now three fathoms under water.

Ninth Battalion Mustered Out.

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 30.—The Ninth Ohio battalion, colored, Major Young commanding, was mustered out at Summerville, S. C., and left there for Ohio. It is understood the battalion will proceed direct to Springfield, O., and on its arrival will be met by a special reception committee including the governor, state officers and prominent citizens, who will tender them a banquet.

Row at a Play.

Paris, Jan. 30.—During a performance of "The King of Rome," at the Nouveau theater, a number of Bonapartists clamored their approval, and at the conclusion of the play hoisted a tri-color flag, surmounted by an imperial eagle. They also shouted "Vive l'Emperur!" Great excitement followed and blows were exchanged, but no arrests were made.

Killed by a Snowslide.

Apex, Col., Jan. 30.—Three lives were lost in a snow slide here. The dead: Mrs. W. H. Rudolph and her two children, aged 2 and 4 years. Snow has been falling almost continually during the past week and had reached a depth of 15 feet on the mountain side. The pack gave way, swept down on the Rudolph home and carried it away.

Warm Debate Expected.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 30.—The week opens with the senatorial situation practically as it was last week at this time. The assembly will consider the report of the special investigation committee. Unless Speaker Wright, who accepted Grant's money, takes action before that time a warm debate is looked for.

A Brewery Scoured.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 30.—The frame portion of the Norton Brewing company's establishment was totally destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $50,000; insurance, $30,000. The new portion, built of brick, was saved.

Broke His Neck.

New York, Jan. 30.—George Brown, a farmer living at Norwood, Long Island, broke his neck in jumping from a window in the house he occupied with his family, and which had taken fire while all were sleeping.

Wellington, New Zealand, Jan. 30.—The surplus wheat of New Zealand will amount to 6,500,000 bushels.

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE

Will Have a Variety of Excitement During the Week.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 30.—The present week promises to be an exciting one in the Nebraska legislature. Aside from the senatorial contest, which shows little change, but which may reach a climax any day, there are the charges looking to the impeachment of District Judge Scott of Omaha to be dealt with, as well as two contest cases from Fillmore county and the possible imprisonment of County Judge Skipper for refusing to bring in ballots bearing on the contest.

Sunday School Convention.

Atlanta, Jan. 30.—The local committee having in charge the arrangements for the ninth triennial international Sunday school convention, which is to be held here in April, took up the work of caring for the big gathering. The convention will meet April 27, 28 and 29 and about 2,000 delegates from all parts of the United States, several South American countries, Canada, Mexico and England are expected. The international lesson committee will meet in Atlanta to map out the Sunday school lessons for the next six years. Possibly the most important work to come before the convention will be the study of what Sunday school work can and should be done in the newly acquired territory of the United States and in Cuba.

May Meet With Objections.

London, Jan. 30.—Right Hon. Walter Hume Long, president of the board of agriculture, addressing the Farmers' club at New Castle, used the word "Alliance" in referring to the future relations between Great Britain and the United States. The frank employment of this term by a member of the government is likely to evoke much dissension, not all of which will be of the friendliest character, inasmuch as seeking an alliance to fight England's battles is not regarded as the best policy to promote an Anglo-American entente.

Fatal Effect of Vaccination.

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—An investigation is being made of the causes of the death of William Nagengast, 11. The lad was vaccinated at a free dispensary on Jan. 4. On Thursday last he called to see the physician. His arm was terribly swollen. That night he was attacked with symptoms of tetanus, or lockjaw, and died the next morning in terrible agony.

To Prohibit Scalping.

Albany, Jan. 30.—It has been decided to introduce a bill prohibiting the scalping of transportation tickets in this state, which will meet the objections raised to the statute enacted last year by the court of appeals. That act was declared to be unconstitutional because it violated the personal rights clause of both the state and the national constitution.

New York Bowlers Win.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—The Greater New York bowlers put in their best five men against the "crack" five of the Hamilton county league and won all three games on high averages. La Due of New York led with 236, 234 and 190. Afternoon games scored: Greater New York, 970,925,920; average, 938. Hamilton county league, 882,922, 903; average, 902.

Postal Service in Cuba.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The postal service in Cuba is being very vigorously pushed under the direction of ex-Assistant Postmaster General Rathbone at Havana and military postal stations, in connection with the New York city postoffice, and money orders and registry facilities have been ordered established at seven more of the large towns.

Shot by His Landlord.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—William Drew, colored, died in the hospital of a pistol shot wound received from Daniel Barnett, a white man, who was Drew's landlord. Barnett had ordered Drew to vacate the house and went to see if he had done so. Drew attacked him and Barnett used his pistol. Barnett is under arrest charged with murder.

Return of Crew.

New York, Jan. 30.—On the steamer Madiana, which arrived from the West Indies, were Captain Mills and five members of the crew of the schooner Harry and Grace Reynolds, which went ashore at St. Croix, while on a voyage from South Amboy with a cargo of coal.

To Lay Out Mail Route.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 30.—The government will send three detachments of soldiers into the Copper river district of Alaska next spring to lay out a mail route to the Yukon river and establish posts.

Miners Killed.

Murcia, Spain, Jan. 30.—Fourteen persons were killed by an explosion of gas in the Palma mine near Mazarron, 20 miles west of Cartagena.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Peace Treaty Has Right of Way In the Senate.

NO APPROPRIATION BILLS

Will Be Pushed For Consideration by Chairman Allison Until the Paris Agreement Has Been Ratified or Rejected.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The senate will devote practically all of the time this week to the consideration of the peace treaty.

Mr. Allison, chairman of the committee on appropriations, says he will not interfere at any time with the consideration of the treaty by asking to have appropriation bills taken up, and as a consequence the treaty will have complete right of way. This week will see the close of the memorable debate, both in executive session and in open session, as the vote is set for 3 o'clock a week hence. Notice has been given of set speeches for every day. Senator Berry will speak Tuesday; Senator Spooner, Wednesday; Senator Rawlins, Thursday; Senator Money, Friday, and Senator Chilton Saturday. These speeches will be based upon the various resolutions on the general question of expansion, and will be delivered in open session. They will, however, be practically devoted to the treaty, and will afford Senators an opportunity to say openly what they would say in secret session if the resolutions were not under consideration.

There will be an effort to get the speeches in before 2 p. m. each day, in order to permit the closing of the doors at 2 o'clock in accordance with the unanimous agreement to that effect, when the treaty will be taken up formally and the executive consideration of the subject proceeded with.

Senators Bacon and Mason both announce their intention of continuing their efforts to get action upon their respective resolutions before the vote is taken upon the resolution to ratify the treaty, and hope to succeed some time during the week. The friends of the treaty are still most sanguine of success, and most of them announce that they will accept no compromise. Others express a willingness to accept some such resolution as that of Senator Sullivan. Those professing to know say it is the policy to force the treaty to a vote before taking action on any compromise proposition, and that if the treaty by any chance should be beaten, to move to reconsider, and then to consider the question of accepting some compromise like the Bacon resolution before final adjournment in March.

Forecast In the House.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Interest centers in the army bill in the house of representatives during the early part of the week. The final vote will be taken at 3 p. m. Tuesday. Prior to this the debate will be under the five minute rule in the main, although sufficient time has been reserved to give Mr. Bailey and some of the other leaders an opportunity for extended speeches. Chairman Hull of the military committee, is confident the bill will pass. The opposition will direct its efforts towards having the bill recommitted. With the army bill disposed of the house will turn its attention to the important river and harbor bill and then to the military academy appropriation bill.

Return of the Roumanian.

New York, Jan. 30.—The United States transport Roumanian, Captain Walcott, arrived from Nuevitas, Cuba, where she landed the Third Georgia volunteers from Savannah. The Roumanian brings 28 passengers, discharged soldiers, carpenters, electricians and some stowaways who have drifted down to Cuba in government transports and are now sent home by the military authorities.

INDICATIONS.—Threatening weather to-night; colder and probably fair Tuesday.

GEN. EAGAN's friends are now trying to get him out of his trouble by pleading that he is crazy, and shouldn't be held responsible for the language he used towards Gen. Miles. Well, the sooner the War Department is rid of such lunatics, the better it will be for the service.

At Ivorydale, near Cincinnati, Saturday, the Proctor & Gamble Soap Company distributed $14,000, profits the last six months, among their 500 employees. The day was one of feasting and enjoyment, over 2,500 people being in attendance. It is safe to predict that this big concern will never be troubled with labor strikes.

THE Covington Commonwealth speaks the truth when it says:

The low rates of interest for money do not reach the class of people who really want money. The rich speculator is the man who can borrow money on call at 2 to 3 per cent.; the mechanic, the farmer and other struggling people, with good security, have to pay 6 to 8 per cent. and costs of borrowing. * * * There is but little legal protection for the man of moderate means; the rich can protect themselves.

Mr. Selby to Have Another Debate.

Arrangements have been made by a committee of the Ohio Liberal Society and a committee representing the Christian churches of Cincinnati and Covington for a joint debate between Rev. Isaac Selby, of Australia, and Charles Watts, First Vice President of the National Secular Society, of England. The debate will take place at the Auditorium, corner of Seventh and Elm streets, Cincinnati, on March 6, 7, 9 and 10. The subjects to be discussed are as follows:

"Is it Reasonable to Believe in a God, the Creator and Moral Governor of the Universe?"

"Has Man a Soul Designed for Immortality?"

"Christianity is Not of Divine Origin, Neither is it Adequate to Meet the Needs of Mankind."

"Is Secularism Sufficient to Satisfy the Needs of Mankind?"

Rev. Selby debated a few months ago with C. Elton Blanchard, of Cleveland, Ohio, but the debate was not satisfactory to the Liberal Society, says the Enquirer; hence the arrangements for a second one.

Mr. Selby recently delivered a series of lectures in this city.

Gambling Rampant.

(Cincinnati Post)

The wild speculation now raging in Wall street, to which hundreds of persons all over the country are contributing, has reached the Chicago wheat pit.

The sharpes are determined to get all the fleeces they can off the innocent lambs. The real value of wheat is known, and has been for some time, and therefore there is neither rhyme nor reason in its quick appreciation in price. With stocks it is somewhat different, as the earning capacity of the railroads and manufacturing concerns which are back of the stocks is on the increase, and dividend-earning capacity measures the value of the shares.

Of all the forms of gambling that in the Chicago wheat pit alone outclasses that at the race track. Many an incautious man is booked to be a pauper by the speculation craze now rampant in Gotham and the Windy City.

Franchise Law Decided.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 27.—The Court of Appeals decided again to-day that the law giving the State Board of Valuation the power to fix the value of franchises of both public and private corporations, for assessment, was constitutional. The case came up from Paducah, the appellants being the Paducah Street Railway and the Paducah Electric Light Company. The opinion requiring private corporations to report to the Auditor or be fined, was cited and reaffirmed in the opinion to-day.

Unmasked In Electric Chair.

New York, Jan. 9.—Bailey Decker, colored, was put to death by electricity in Sing Sing prison for the murder of his white wife. Two shocks were given him. After the current had been turned on the mask fell from the dying man's face. Otherwise the execution was a success.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

SENATOR GOEBEL.

The Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Given a Handsome Send-Off at Owensboro.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Jan. 28.—Captain W. T. Ellis, the leading Free Silver Democrat of Western Kentucky, in introducing Senator Goebel to his Owensboro audience to-day, said:

"If I were asked to name Senator Goebel's most conspicuous party service, a service that endears him to every Democrat in the State, I would point to his faultless leadership and faithful management of Joe Blackburn's memorable senatorial contest before the Kentucky Legislature in 1897.

"When Senator Goebel says he would not accept the nomination for the office of Governor upon a platform that did not indorse in its entirety the Chicago platform of 1896, and when he declares that he favors the renomination of William J. Bryan, he utters a sentiment which, I believe, will find a ready response, not only in the hearts of Kentucky Democrats, but in the hearts of Democrats throughout the whole country."

THE BOYS IN CUBA.

Appeal Made For Some Good Literature For the Soldiers of the First U. S.
Infantry.

Mrs. Basil Duke is in receipt of a letter from a close relative making an earnest appeal for some good literature for the gallant soldiers of the First U. S. Regular Infantry, now stationed at Pinar del Rio, Cuba. The writer tells in pathetic terms of the condition of the soldier boys, and of their great need of some wholesome means of entertainment to relieve the monotony of the daily routine of garrison duty.

The writer adopted the "endless chain" letter as a means of reaching their friends, but Mrs. Duke concluded that the quickest way to place the appeal before the good people of Maysville was through the press, and the BULLETIN gladly gives its aid to the movement. Following is the appeal as set forth in the "endless chain" letter:

As this has been a year of "endless chains," some of us—exiles with our army in Cuba—have hit upon a similar scheme to secure some entertainment for our soldiers. If you will kindly contribute to this good cause you can do so by sending two old novels, magazines, or interesting books, by mail to CAPTAIN NAT P. PHISTER, First U. S. Regular Infantry, Pinar del Rio, Cuba.

If you take a monthly magazine, send it each month when you are through with it. Captain Phister has agreed to make an equitable distribution of these books among the soldiers at Pinar del Rio. It is not intended that this scheme shall apply to any troops but those right at that place.

The postage, we understand, to points in Cuba is the same for similar matter to points in the United States. There is enough literature of the kind named right here in Maysville to supply the regiment for some time, and as Captain Phister is a Maysville boy, our people will certainly take great delight in responding to the above appeal. The cost will not be much, and by sending a few books or magazines you will help a most worthy cause.

Let the response to the appeal be prompt and liberal.

But have advanced far enough in our annual taking account of stock to see that we have much to be thankful for to our friends and the public at large, and now enter into 1899 business with strong hopes of making it one of the most successful business years we ever had. Our business policy will be adhered to, to the letter. Our motto is:

is proven by the quantities we buy and sell. Our spring purchases (and they will surprise you) will soon come in—some are in now. We will need all the room we can possibly secure. We will offer great inducements to sell what little we carry over in heavy weights. To be sure our sizes are somewhat broken, but if we can fit you in goods you will be nicely fitted in price. Death at Orangeburg Sunday Morning of a Most Estimable Woman—Funeral Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Thomas died Sunday morning at the home of the family in Orangeburg, after a lingering illness.

Deceased was about fifty years of age and was one of Orangeburg's most estimable women. Her husband survives. Their only child, a lovely daughter, died a few years ago. Deceased was a Miss Hord, sister of Dr. W. H. Hord.

The funeral will occur Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock (sun time) at Orangeburg Christian Church. Rev. A. E. Zeigler will probably officiate.

We've had eighteen snows this winter.

PROF. H. R. BLAISDELL is reported rapidly improving at Christ's Hospital, Cincinnati.

The present freeze is the hardest on the wheat and clover of any we've had during the winter.

MR. H. C. WELLS leaves to-day as an agent for the Egan Company of Cincinnati to set up and operate a saw mill at Kazan, Russia, for a New York concern.

A LITTLE child of Mr. Charles Gettis, residing near Washington, was badly burned about the face and neck Saturday by falling into the fire. The mother had tied the child in a chair and while she was absent it fell forward into the fire.

At Millersburg, because their twelve-year-old adopted daughter was a little slow in emptying a pail of slop, Al. Clark and wife, colored, forced the girl, it is charged, to drink a liquid from which she became dangerously ill. The Clarks were arrested and fined $5 each.

THE dissolution sale of Lee & Ballenger gives the people of Maysville and surrounding country an opportunity not often enjoyed to secure clothing, men's furnishing goods, hats, caps, trunks and traveling bags at bargain prices. This sale is now in progress. Everything in their big stock must go. See advertisement in tomorrow's BULLETIN.

SHORT NEWS STORIES.

Basil Duke and the Burglar—A New One on General Miles—Rockefeller's First Picture.

Ex-Senator Joe Blackburn of Kentucky entertained a jolly party of well known gentlemen at Chamberlin's the other evening with an amusing description of the only occasion upon which General Basil W. Duke of Louisville, the famous Confederate general, ever took orders from a negro. The general was in the party of listeners and enjoyed Mr. Blackburn's version of the story. From his boyhood days General Duke had been giving orders to negroes but recently a big black one came to see him and reversed things. The general was asleep and comfortable in his bed at his old Kentucky home, and a noise in the room awakened him. He got up and slipped on his trousers, struck a light and out from behind a piece of large furniture sprang a desperate looking negro robber.

He ordered the general at the point of a revolver to disrobe and retire. He did so, and then the robber ordered him to tell him where he could find with the least trouble his valuables. This was all duly explained, and the general further gave a detailed account of what he had in his clothes and about his room. In short, he and the robber carried on half an hour's conversation. The negro secured something over $50 and a gold watch, turned out the light and left. All during the robbery he had his revolver pointing toward the general. It was not very funny at the time, yet it appeared so to Mr. Blackburn when he read it in the papers, and when he told it yesterday the general also saw the humorous side of the thing.—Washington Post.

A New One on General Miles.

"I heard a story on General Miles the other day," said Mr. Samuel Q. Morgan of New York to a Washington Star reporter. "I think that it comes straight and will give it as it was told me by an officer on the general's staff who accompanied him on the Porto Rican expedition."

"General Miles is, I understand, a hard man to approach, and his official position as the head of the United States army naturally commands respect from those who come into contact with him.

"A day after the general landed in Porto Rico one of his orderlies was taken sick with fever and had to go to the hospital. A new man was called for, and a private from a western regiment was detailed to take the position. The recruit who showed up at headquarters came from somewhere up on the great lakes and, I think, belonged to a Wisconsin volunteer regiment. Anyhow, to state it mildly, he was the greenest and most self important recruit I ever saw.

"WELL, MILES, WHAT IS IT?"

Along with his early schooling he must have read the clause in the Declaration of Independence that runs to the effect that all men are free and equal, and he bore himself accordingly.

"The morning after he was detailed General Miles was holding a consultation at headquarters with some of the big officers of his command. The general called for an orderly to run an unimportant errand, and the gentleman from Wisconsin sauntered in, made a pass at his hat with his left hand for a salute and ejaculated:

"Well, Miles, what is it?"

"If the Spaniards had dropped a shell in our midst it would have hardly surprised us more. At first General Miles' face grew black as thunder, and then his scowl changed to a quizzical smile.

"Don't call me Miles. Call me Nelse. Miles is so formal, you know."

The gentleman from Wisconsin had meanwhile realized from the expressions on our faces what he had done and with General Miles' answer became the most confused man I ever saw. Some one else ran his errand, a regular, I think, and the hero of my story was never seen at headquarters again."

Rockefeller's First Picture.

When John D. Rockefeller was a boy, he had his first picture taken with his class at Oswego academy, Oswego, N. Y., in 1853. It was a daguerreotype, and when Rockefeller became rich he tried to buy it from his former teacher, William Smyth, who refused to sell at any price. Mr. Smyth died a short time ago, and his son has since sent the picture to the millionaire. In the same class were General I. S. Catlin, Bishop George Worthington of Nebraska and Charles R. Colburn, Pennsylvania state superintendent of schools.

Substantial Appreciation.

Daniel Webster once got a check for $5,000 that he was in no wise looking for. Webster was in the United States senate at the time and had delivered his masterly speech on the compromise measures, in which he sought to reconcile the differences between the sections. Its broad patriotism appealed to Mr. W. W. Corcoran so strongly that he sent the senator the sum mentioned the next day in a letter expressive of his admiration for the man and the speech.

TELEGRAPH ARRANGEMENTS.

MILITARY OFFICES ARE NOW IN OPERATION IN CUBA.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The signal office, war department, has issued a circular in regard to military telegraph offices now in operation by the signal corps in Porto Rico and Cuba.

ABOUT REVISION OF DREYFUS CASE.

Paris, Jan. 30.—A semi-official note issued says that at an extraordinary meeting the cabinet has decided that the minister of justice, M. Labret, shall submit to the chamber of deputies on Monday next a bill providing that cases of trial revisions are to be brought before the united sections of the court of cassation whenever the criminal section shall have pronounced upon the admissibility of an application for the revision of a previous judgment. It refers to the Dreyfus case.

EULOGIES TO JOSE MARTI.

Havana, Jan. 30.—Four thousand persons, men in their best clothing and women gaily dressed, stood amid a pouring rain in Paula square listening to six intensely patriotic eulogies upon Jose Marti, the Cuban patriot and first president of the Cuban revolutionary government. A tablet to his memory was unveiled at the house where he was born, in a street near by, and 82 societies, consisting of 2,500 persons, with banners, flags and five bands, marched through the principal thoroughfares to the square. Marti's widow, mother and son led the parade, with the first Cuban flag used by the patriots, which was loudly cheered.

Men Not Religious.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Jan. 30.—The men of Porto Rico are not religious. Only the women and children attend church. Yet the church and its orders have many pleasant associations for them. Though they may dislike the Spanish priests, they have good wishes for the Roman Catholic church, which they wish to see conducted as it is in the United States.

SUICIDE OF A MAGISTRATE.

Milwaukee, Jan. 30.—George McWhorter, for 30 years justice of the peace, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. As justice he did a land office business marrying couples from adjoining states. Despondency over defeat for the office he held so long is supposed to have led to his suicide.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

SALES CLOSED FRIDAY WITH GOOD ACTIVE BIDDING—DEMAND FOR LOW GRADES OF NEW VERY STRONG.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

With liberal receipts the tobacco market has increased rapidly in the volume of business, the sales assuming the old standard of full houses, especially on Wednesday, which seems to be the preferred day at present for crowding the breaks, to the detriment of a steady market. We believe if the shippers would distribute their offerings among the four sale days of the week it would be a benefit to the market.

The sales started on Tuesday with medium offerings, and, while there was no advance over the previous week there was considerable snap in the bidding, and the largest portion of the offerings was accepted.

Offerings on Wednesday were very heavy at all the houses, and with a full complement of buyers the market started out at some advance over Tuesday's sale, and remained firm until the last sale, when a decline was noticeable.

Offerings on Thursday were not so heavy, but there was no advance over the closing sales of Wednesday, although the largest portion of the offerings was accepted.

With small offerings on Friday the market took a reaction, and prices fully recovered and closed with good active bidding.

Offerings of old stock were quite limited, and there was a very active competition on all grades offered. We think old tobacco is fully 1c. to 2c. higher, and from present indications the manufacturers will take all the old stock at the advance, as stocks are so limited there will be none to spare.

The demand for low grades of the new has been very strong. Manufacturers' buyers and speculators are strong competitors, especially where they have color, prices ranging from 3½c. to 5½c. Mediums are not quite so strong as low grades, while the best leaf does not sell as well in proportion to the quality as the low and medium grades, although several hogsheads brought from 12c. to 16½c. this week, which are the best prices obtained this year. Several very good averages have been made, and a majority of the shippers have been well pleased with the week's transactions.

We expect, with moderate sales the coming week, to have a good market.

THE BETTER DRAWER.

"Your money or your life!" cried the robber.

"Ha, ha!" laughed the artist, and drew a pistol. The artist had no money, and, according to the critics, not much life, but that was not why he laughed. He laughed because he belonged to the school which draws rapidly and boldly rather than the school which draws laboriously, with great attention to detail.—Detroit Journal.

LANDLORDS.

There is perhaps no tenant who is so completely at the mercy of his landlord as the occupier of a house in London which belongs to one of the great ground landlords. He is an absolute prisoner within the four corners of his lease. The slightest deviation is accompanied with pains and penalties, but, on the other hand, the landlord reserves all kinds of privileges to himself.
